Foreword

Memories of our high school life leave as vivid impression in our minds as does a glorious sunrise in the mind of an artist. In one sense high school is a picture of a sunrise—the primary portrait in a series which signifies preparation for life. In this edition of your ASH-HI-LIFE may there be pictured memories to keep this year forever alive. So in the words of our theme:

*As artists of our lives
These are the portraits we paint of
Our '53 high school life.*

RUTH AND BARBARA

Dedication

There are times when a student needs a friend and counselor as well as a teacher. We have found one who possesses all three qualifications. His friendship with all draws students and teachers closer together; his counsel is behind the graduation and success of many students; his teaching ability is forever on call; and, in all these, his consideration of students is forever in practice. His every action, thought, and deed stems from his deep-founded faith in democratic ideals. There are very few ways we can truly show him our appreciation, but the 1953 staff sincerely wishes that this dedication may be considered a token of thanks to this friend. For just being the person he is, this ASH-HI-LIFE is dedicated to our principal, Mr. Joseph M. Johnston.
